Message on Re-opening of Daniel O'Connell Memorial Church!

It is a great pleasure to send my warmest greetings to everyone gathered for the reopening of the Daniel O'Connell Memorial Church.

Dedicated to the memory of Daniel O'Connell, whose lifelong commitment to justice, equality and peaceful pursuit of change continues to serve as a source of inspiration for so many, this church serves as a reminder of the values of compassion and respect for human rights for which he stood and embodied throughout his life.
I wish to acknowledge all of those whose generosity and dedication have contributed to the re-opening of this church. Their work has ensured that the Daniel O'Connell Memorial Church will continue to serve as a place of welcome and reflection for the local community of Cahersiveen for many years to come.

May this occasion offer an opportunity for celebration for all those in attendance.

With every good wish,
Catherine Connolly
Uachtarán na hÉireann.
