A New Beginning!

There is something special about the beginning of a new school year. Classrooms are busy again, children and young people are meeting their friends, and teachers are preparing for another year of learning and discovery. For some, it is an exciting new beginning; for others, there may be a little nervousness about what lies ahead.

In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that life does not always follow the easiest path. "Take up your cross and follow me." His words can sound challenging, but they also remind us that we are not expected to make the journey alone.

A new school year is a good time for all of us to begin again. We may not know exactly what the year will bring, but we can choose how we face it – with patience, kindness, courage and faith.

Perhaps that is a good message for every one of us this week:

We cannot always choose the road ahead, but we can choose how we walk it.

May God bless our children, young people, teachers and all who begin a new chapter at this time.
