Thought for the Week: Who do you say I am?

Christianity is not simply about learning facts about God. It is about a relationship. Thus, Jesus poses the question "Who do you say I am?" The Lord is asking "Who am I for you?", "What part do I play in your life?", "How deep is your relationship with me and to what extent does it shape all your other relationships, all you say and do?" In a sense, Jesus is asking "What difference do I make in your life?" The answer we give can never simply be borrowed from somebody else. It is personal.
