Being attentive to the voice of the Lord.

Sometimes we can be so busy saying prayers that we never leave space for God to speak. Prayer can unintentionally become a one-way conversation. God certainly invites us to bring the realities of our lives to him. But he also desires to guide us, strengthen us and speak into our hearts. That happens not in chaos, but in quiet attentiveness. When was the last time you sat quietly in God's presence?

Do you expect God to speak to you? ~Fr Gerard
