Reflection - What life has taught me

I've learned that no matter how bad today seems, life goes on and tomorrow can be better.

I've learned that you can tell a lot about a person by how they handle a rainy day, lost luggage and tangled Christmas lights.

I've learned that you'll miss your parents when they're gone.

I've learned that making a living is not the same as making a life, and that life can give you a second chance.

I've learned that you shouldn't just take from life - you need to give something back. I've learned that even when I have pains, I don't have to be one and that a kind word, a warm hug, or a friendly touch can mean so much.

I've learned that I still have a lot to learn. Most of all, I've learned that people may forget what you said or did, but they will never forget how you made them feel.

Our Blessed Mother Mary

You can't say you can't because you are God's mother.

You won't say you won't because you are my mother.

You will, won't you.

Lord Jesus, we ask You to bring Your healing touch
to those whom we know to be sick,
afraid or worried.
Bring them Your peace and healing.
