The fire of God's love.

Like Peter and Jeremiah in today's readings, we too will find a resistance within ourselves to the call to reach beyond ourselves for the sake of Christ. Both of them felt the strong urge to protect themselves from what they perceived to be the painful consequences of the Lord's call. Yet, the fire of God's spirit, the fire of love burning in them could not be ignored. We too have that fire burning within us, urging us to give ourselves in service of the Lord and his people. It is in attending to this fire and keeping it burning that we will find true happiness. ~
