Forgiveness: Letting Go!

These days, it is very easy to fall out with someone. A word can be misunderstood, a comment can cause offence, and before we know it, people who were once close are no longer speaking. In this Sunday's Gospel, Peter asks Jesus how often we should forgive. Jesus' answer is simple: don't keep a scoreboard.

We are reminded of this when we think of Katie Taylor and her father, Pete. Their relationship has not always been easy, and they have experienced difficult times. Yet, like many families, there has been a willingness to move beyond hurt and disagreement. Their story reminds us that relationships are often more important than winning an argument. Forgiveness does not mean saying that what happened was right. It means refusing to let yesterday's hurt control tomorrow.

Perhaps there is someone we need to forgive – a family member, friend, neighbour, or someone we have not spoken to for years.

We cannot change the past, but we can choose what we do with it.

Life is too short to carry yesterday's anger into tomorrow. Forgive, let go, and make room for peace.
