Season of Creation 2026 The Season of Creation began on Tuesday, 1 September, the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation, and continues until 4 October, the Feast of St Francis of Assisi. This year's theme is Living Water. All are invited to participate in an activity or take action to care for creation. Further information: www.dioceseofkerry.ie/justice

ROSARY: on Main Street, Killarney will be held on Sunday 13th September at 3 p.m. We offer our rosary to the Blessed Mother following her request at Fatima to pray for world peace in this manner. We hope to see you there.

Reflection

People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centred. Forgive them anyway. If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish ulterior motives. Be kind anyway. If you are successful, you will win some false friends and some true enemies. Succeed anyway. If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you. Be honest and frank anyway. What you spend years building; someone could destroy overnight. Build anyway. If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous. Be happy anyway. The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow. Do good anyway. Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough. Give the best you've got anyway. You see, in the final analysis it is between you and God; it was never between you and them anyway. (St. Teresa of Calcutta - Mother Teresa Feast Day - September 5)
