The art of Forgiveness.

The art of forgiveness consists in having a humble spirit. When you forgive you change yourself and other people as well. You free yourself from the burden of bitterness, and you loose others from the chain of guilt. Forgiveness should start now. Putting it off only deepens the wound. Clinging to bitterness postpones happiness. Life is short, time is fleeting. Today is the day to forgive. ~ Fr. Gerard

Pattern Day Thank You

Thanks to everyone who came along to the Pattern Day on Tuesday the 8th of September. It was great to see such a big turn out. What a wonderful way to celebrate Our Lady's birthday and it's a testament to your dedication and loyalty that it has continued through the decades. Thanks to everyone who volunteered their time over the last few months and especially on the day. Thanks to the choir, readers, eucharistic ministers, stewards, grotto caretakers, florists, Irish Red Cross, local doctor and paramedic and the parishioners who so kindly allowed use of their homes and fields. But especially to all of you who came along and joined us in the mass.
Go raibh mile maith agaibh agus go mbeannai Dia agus Muire sibh go Léir

Prayer After Communion

Be Still, and Listen
Give to Christ your heart of hearts.
Let Him draw near to you.

Season of Creation 2026 The Season of Creation - Tráth an Chruthaithe began on Tuesday, 1 September, the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation and continues until 4 October.

Immersion in Living Water - Ezekiel 47:9,12

This year's theme "Living Water" comes from the prophet Ezekiel 47: 9,12 – a biblical vision of hope and ecological restoration. The living water flowing from God's sanctuary heals land, water, biodiversity as well as fostering human responsibility towards the whole of creation. Further info www.dioceseofkerry.ie/justice
