Prayer for the Day

*For the sky above me,
for the earth beneath my feet,
for the sun's rising and setting,
for the water rushing downstream,
for the breath in my lungs,
for the beat of my heart.
For all I have accomplished,
for what lies ahead.
For the promise of tomorrow,
Lord, I thank you.*

REFLECTION

Peter has been called a stumbling saint.
He is a great consolation to us because courage fails us all.
All of us are mere mortals,
who are inconstant in our beliefs.
We must learn to forgive ourselves
momentary weaknesses and failures.
We need to surmount these things
and see the world in less rigid terms.
We must not judge ourselves or others
by momentary inconsistencies,
but rather by commitment given over a long time.
Jesus was well aware of Peter's faults,
but he saw that, in spite of everything,
his heart was sound.
Which meant he had the ability to love.
and in the long run love is what counts.

FINAL BLESSING

Lord, three things we ask:
to see you more clearly,
to love you more dearly
and to follow you more nearly, day by day.
We make all our prayers through Christ our Lord.

God Bless, Fr. Noel 087-2935969
