Pope's Intention for September: For the care of water. Let us pray for a just and sustainable management of water, a vital resource, so that everyone may have equal access to it.

Vocations Afternoon at the Poor Clare Monastery, College Road, Cork: Saturday October 3rd, 2 - 4 pm, for young women thinking about a contemplative vocation. www.poorclarecork.ie

Pope Leo XVI on X: Sunday, September 27th, marks the World Day of Migrants and Refugees. My thoughts go out to migrants and refugees, especially minors compelled to leave their homeland. Children and teenagers are the most vulnerable. They often endure unspeakable suffering, violence, torture, exploitation, and traumatic conditions. It is not uncommon for them to lose their lives along migration routes. I appeal to everyone's sense of responsibility: may we all feel a sense of involvement in the lives of these young people, who must always be protected and supported.

Thought for the Day: In today's parable, the offence is to be found in the blindingly obvious answer to the question Jesus sets. The application is then very sharp: those who seemingly never have experienced sin and conversion (who are they?) are quick to judge others who come to God through failure and fracture. It is like the 99 who have no need of conversion, we may doubt that they ever really existed! A certain complacency can mark any settled religious group and if we add to that self-righteousness, then the mix is explosive and we are far from the Gospel as preached by Jesus. Prayer: Blessed are they who know their need of God (Mt 5:3). May we recognise ourselves as part of the community of the needy and show the compassion of Jesus to all without distinction. (www.tarsus.ie)
