November - Remembering those we Love!

November has a special place in our hearts. As the evenings grow darker and the years draw towards its close, we find ourselves thinking of those who are no longer with us. All of us have people we miss: a husband or wife, a parent, a brother or sister, a friend or neighbour. We remember their voices, their smiles, the little things they did, and the memories that remain with us. Sometimes it is only when we hear a familiar song, visit a favourite place or sit quietly at home that we realise just how much we still miss them. During November, we are invited to remember our dead in a special way. We light candles, visit their graves and pray for them, trusting them to the loving care of God. Grief may never completely leave us, but neither does love. The people we have loved remain part of who we are.

May this month bring comfort to those who mourn gratitude for the lives we have shared, and hope in the promise that love is stronger than death.
