REFLECTION

And so the autumn makes itself known to us in many ways;
the trees shedding their leaves;
the multi-coloured dead leaves that lie on our pathways,
the shorter days and the longer evenings,
light gives way to shadow and darkness
and thus we are reminded, and indeed remember, our loved ones who have died

November is a month with its own energy;
it instils in us the gift of remembering those who have gone before us;
those who are now on sli na firinne (the way of truth)
We remember them and honour their memory, we give thanks for them and their legacies they have left us;
perhaps the legacy of integrity, simplicity, peace, and above all,
their faith; faith in God and their faith in broken humanity;
their understanding from the depth of their being.

In this Month of November let us honour their memory with gratitude and allow their spirits to go free so that we can receive them in abundance.

May their generous souls Rest in Peace

FINAL BLESSING

Heavenly Father, with the saints to inspire and guide us, may we seek after holiness and thus live lives that are worthy of our Christian dignity;
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

God Bless, Fr. Noel 087-2935969
