Living with Intention

The parable of the wise and foolish virgins calls us to live with intentionality. It encourages us to align our lives with the teachings of Christ, ensuring that our faith is not only professed but actively lived out. This preparation is an ongoing process, readying us for the moment when we encounter the bridegroom.

We are challenged to reflect on the depth of our faith and the constant need for spiritual preparation. It beckons us to live with a faith that goes beyond words, one that is active, intentional, and ever ready. As followers of Christ, let us heed the wisdom of the wise virgins, ensuring that our lamps are filled with the oil of a vibrant and enduring faith.
