A Candle
Often we light candles as a sign of remembering and as we light the candle we say a prayer for that person that they may be enjoying the marvellous light of heaven. The candle light reminds us that we too have the opportunity to share the light of hope, that we carry, with others.
When you are in a dark place, the warmth of a smile or a kind word can mean a lot.

It may feel that our own light is very small and insignificant in times of much darkness but each time it is shared, it is not halved but doubled. Together we really can make a difference. Dr Lynn Bassett

The Pope's Monthly Intention November
For the proper use of wealth – Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not uccumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

November
At this time of year, our deceased relatives and friends are often in our minds. Our faith tells us that we needn't grieve over them like people with no hope. We remember them with love, and entrust them to God's care.
Penitential Rite
As we begin to celebrate God's enduring mercy, let us call to mind our moments of unfaithfulness: (pause)
Lord Jesus, you raise us to new life:
Lord, have mercy.
Lord Jesus, you forgive us our sins:
Christ, have mercy.
Lord Jesus, you feed us with your body and blood: Lord, have mercy.
Prayer
Brighten your Church, O God,
with the promise of your kingdom
and waken our hearts to its light.
Bid us hasten with faith undimmed
to greet the bridegroom's return
and to enter the wedding feast.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.
Introduction to the Scripture Readings
Wisdom 6:12-16 — Wisdom is a gift freely given to those who seek it. Wisdom never disappoints.
1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 — We're assured that we needn't grieve over the dead like people with no hope.
Matthew 25: 1-13 — A warning against complacency: we need to be ready, to 'stay awake.'

Seeing Your Life Though The Lens Of The Gospel Mt 25:1-13
1 While the parable has clear end-of-time applications it can also be applied to any moment of grace. It reminds us that moments of grace come unexpectedly, and we need to be awake to receive them. Recall times when you were alert for such a moment. What were the consequences for you?
2 Grace can also be disturbing. We can be coasting along in life and suddenly an opportunity or a graced moment arrives and we are shaken out of our routine in order to respond. Perhaps you can recall both moments when you were unprepared, and moments when you were able to respond. What lessons have you learned from such experiences?
3 We may be tempted to judge the wise virgins as being selfish for not sharing with the others, but perhaps Jesus is teaching us that there are some things that other people cannot provide for us. We have to acquire them ourselves. What qualities in life do you see as the essential oil that you must provide for yourself?

Remembering Our Dead
November Masses & Evening prayer
Mass for the Holy Souls and those remembered on the All List will be celebrated in Glenbeigh on this Monday evening 2nd November and on the Monday he 9th. Of November and on Monday /16th./23rd.of November.
All these Masses will be celebrated at 7:30 pm.
Masses for the Holy Souls and those remembered on the All Souls Lists in Glencar will be celebrated at 6 p.m. this the Saturday evening 7th of November / and on the Saturday evening of 14th./21st. November.
At the Mass on Monday 23rd. November in Glenbeigh parishioners who died since last November whose requiems took place in the parish will be especially remembered. A candle in their memory will be brought to the sanctuary and placed on a stand before the Altar at the beginning of the Mass.
Please Collect your November Envelope at the back of the Church and return it in time for these celebrations.
I ask all Clubs and Organisations not to have their events clash with these November Masses for our dead; and the Saturday Evening Mass in Glencar and Sunday Morning Mass in Glenbeigh at any time . Thank You.
