A Time to Remember!

Those we love never leave us. They remain part of who we are, in the memories we treasure, the lives they touched and the love they left behind. This weekend, as we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King, we gather as a parish community for our annual Mass of Remembrance for all who died during the year.it is a special occasion for families and friends to remember those they have loved and lost. We think of their faces, their voices, the memories we shared and the many ways they touched our lives. Although they are no longer with us, the love we have for them does not end with death. For those who have experienced bereavement, this can be a difficult time, particularly as Christmas approaches. We hope this Mass will offer comfort, strength and an opportunity to remember. As we celebrate Christ the King, we are reminded that his kingdom is a kingdom of love, peace and eternal life. We commend all our deceased loved ones to his loving care and keep their families in our prayers.
