REFLECTION

I have not the fine audacity of men who have mastered the pen
or the purse.
The complexes of many slaves are in my verse.
When I straighten my shoulders to look at the world boldly
I see talent coldly
Damning me to stooped attrition.
Mine was a beggar's mission
To dreams of beauty I should have been born blind.
I should have been content to walk behind watching the reflection of God's delight:
A second-hand teller of the story
A second-hand glory.
It was not right
That my mind should have echoed life's overtones
That I should have sent a flower petalled in mighty power. (from the Poems of Patrick Kavanagh)

FINAL BLESSING

Heavenly Father, help us to use well the gifts of grace and nature which you have given us so that one day we may merit to hear those happy words: 'well done, good and faithful servants'.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

God Bless, Fr. Noel 087-2935969
